“Nykolaes and Daniel Paul both grew up in the Flemish fields before cohousing together in Brussels. With their album Neofolk (on the Toverberg label), they made one of the most beautiful and underrated Belgian albums of 2023. Think soft, half-mumbled and half-sung songs combining guitar and electronics, sometimes in autotune, sometimes out of tune. Emotional and honest living room music in English and Dutch. Or what happens when friends spontaneously make a record with a couple of strings, lo-fi equipment, lots of love and honesty.”
